Sen. McCarthy Says He Will Prove Charges

Makes Declaration Despite Lattimore Clearance By FBI

By WILLIAM THEIS
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(INS)—Sen. McCarthy (R. Wis.) declared today he will prove his charges against Owen J. Lattimore despite the preliminary clearance given the accused far eastern expert by senate loyalty investigators.

Chairman Tydings (D. Md.) announced that there is nothing in the FBI file on Lattimore to show that he ever has been a communist or "in any way" connected with espionage.

The fight has only started. I know that I am going to be scarred deeply before this fight is over. "I just intend to continue developing all the situations I can in the state department."

Regarding Tydings' announcement on Lattimore, McCarthy retorted Tydings "either hasn't seen the files or he's lying."

Tydings, however, said that he would stand on his "reputation for accuracy," particularly since his statement was backed by four of the five committee members.

Confers In New York

McCarthy went to New York to confer with a number of secret witnesses to urge them to come to Washington to back his charges against Lattimore.

The committee already has agreed to hear them next Thursday.

Lattimore yesterday denounced McCarthy at a committee hearing as a maker of "base and contemptible lies" for labeling Lattimore the "top Russian espionage agent in this country."

General debate on the giant measure ended yesterday after four days, shortly before the house adjourned. Weeks may elapse before the final tally is taken.

Canadian War Vessels On Visit To New York Port

NEW YORK, April 7.—(INS)—A 21-gun salute, tugboat whistles and keyers of water from fireboats gave a noisy and gala welcome today to three distinguished New York visitors from Canada.

The visitors were the 18,000-ton Canadian light aircraft carrier Magnificent, the 2,745-ton destroyer Micmac and the 1,445-ton frigate Swansea, carrying a total of some 2,000 officers and men.

The salute guns boomed from Governors Island as the ships steamed slowly into the harbor and to their dock where the vessels will be open for public inspection.

Arrival of the Canadian warships marked the first such formal call by Canadian war vessels at any American port.

President's Stay In Florida Nears End

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

U. S. SUB BASE, Key West, Fla., April 7.—President Truman donned his long-handle woggles today and sat out an early spring burst of — for south Florida — wintry weather.

In the waning days of his month's vacation in the southland the president missed his second swim and sunning in over three weeks.

The temperatures dropped into the low fifties and strong, cool winds blew over the Florida Keys during the past 48 hours.

Mr. Truman took advantage of the change in his routine to clear away an accumulation of official work.

But the White House made it clear he will not touch the controversial Kerr natural gas bill until he returns to Washington.

Cold Weather Hits Miami

MIAMI, April 7.—(INS)—The thermometer dipped to 44 degrees in downtown Miami today to set a new April cold record for the Florida city.

The temperature was even lower in outlying sections of the city but the official weather bureau reading was 44—one degree colder than the previous April low of 45 that was recorded in 1915.

Chilly weather was felt throughout most of Florida last night and early today.

Ocala and Cross City both reported readings of 33. Jacksonville had 37 and Tallahassee 39. Readings were in the low 50's at President Truman's vacation retreat in Key West.

It was so cold in Tampa that a Florida International league baseball game between Tampa and Lakeland was cancelled last night.

Push Probe Of Kansas City Dual Slaying

Clues Are Sought In Political Boss' Mystery Shooting

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 7.—Five law enforcement agencies, prodded by an irate citizenry, grilled gambling and political bosses today for clues to the murders of Democratic Chief Charles Binaggio and his "touch guy" henchman Charles Gargotta.

Question 25 Persons
Twenty-five persons were questioned in a "shuttle-service" roundup which operated through the night and police said the alibis of several, including a gunman who frequently accompanied Binaggio, would be checked.

A theory held by some investigators was that Binaggio was "executed" by a national gambling syndicate because he wanted to withdraw.

They noted reports that he had promised to open Kansas City wide for gambling after considerable sums were dumped into the primary campaign in his Northside district in 1948.

In Congress Republicans pressed for an investigation of national gambling syndicates and any links between politics and crime in Kansas City.

Undermined Machine
The 41-year-old Binaggio who undermined the old Pendergast machine, and Gargotta, who was arrested 40 times in 30 years, were found shot near the base of the brain early yesterday in Binaggio's political clubroom on Truman road.

J. L. Milligan, president of the Kansas City police board, emerged from a conference with representatives of four other law enforcement agencies and declared:

"These murders can be considered only as open defiance of law and order."

"This challenge to law enforcement can only be met and will (Continued on Page Two)

Sen. Mundt Says Naming Of Dulles Only 'Gesture'

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(INS)—Appointment of John Foster Dulles, veteran Republican foreign affairs expert as an adviser to Secretary of State Acheson drew the fire today of a Republican Senator.

Sen. Mundt (R. S. D.), criticized the appointment as "timed to divert public attention from the State Department's recent bungling."

The South Dakotan hit at the obvious administration effort to restore the bi-partisan foreign policy. He said the naming of Dulles was only a "gesture" and that the bi-partisan policy will be successful only if the administration "consults with Republican members of Congress in the formation of a new and positive foreign policy."

Secretary of State Acheson said Dulles would not accompany him to London for the forthcoming London conference of the U. S., (Continued on Page Two)

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(INS)—The murder of Kansas City Democratic boss Charles Binaggio touched off vigorous Republican demands in Congress today for investigation of crime and politics in President Truman's home district.

Short declared that Binaggio was "bumped off" because "he was in the way."

Watchmen Are Found Stabbed

Bodies Found In Washington Store

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(INS)—Two night watchmen were found stabbed to death today in one of Washington's largest downtown department stores.

The two were John S. Carpenter, 45, and Oliver R. Hess, 56. Both were stabbed several times, apparently with a butcher knife found by detectives searching the store.

Carpenter's body, bound and gagged, was discovered in a first floor washroom. Hess lay sprawled in front of a sixth floor elevator.

Discovery of the crime came when an attendant of the American District Telegraph company was dispatched to the store after an electric switch box had not been punched by him as scheduled.

Carpenter's body was discovered by the ADT man, police found Hess a few minutes later.

NEW YORK, April 7.—(INS)—Two workmen were injured early today when sparks from their welding torches touched off a fire on the 23rd floor of the 792-foot high Woolworth building in lower Manhattan.

Girls Confess Firing School In Illinois

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., April 7.—(INS)—Two 14-year-old girls, one of whom recently was honored for church work have confessed setting a million dollar Rock Island junior high school fire "to get out of classes for a couple of days."

The fire last Dec. 11 destroyed the Central junior high school. A $1,800,000 bond issued to replace it will be voted on tomorrow.

The girls, Patricia Flaherty and Gay Jean Grant, were arrested on Wednesday night after they started a fire in the Lincoln grade school to win a 25-cent bet from boyfriends. The blaze caused $100 damage.

The bet was made because the boyfriends doubted the girls' claim that they could set a fire like that which destroyed the Central junior high school.

State's Attorney Bernard J. Moran said yesterday the girls readily admitted setting both school fires. They were charged with arson and released on $2,000 bond each.

He said the teen-agers told him they were determined "to do something" to miss school so they tried to flood the school by turning on all the showers in the boys' locker room.

When that failed the girls said they set fire to a wall map, curtains and a Christmas tree on the second floor of the school.

Gay recently won a trip to Chicago for perfect Sunday school attendance.

The high school fire failed to give the girls their hoped-for vacation. The day after the blaze, classes were transferred to another building.

Nine-Year-Old Boy Shoots His Sister To Death In Chicago

CHICAGO, April 7.—(INS)—A bewildered, frightened, 9-year-old boy was held in Chicago's juvenile home today and social workers investigated conditions in the crowded two-room flat where he shot and killed his sister in a game of "cops and robbers."

Teddy Pibolis re-enacted the fatal shooting of his 7-year-old sister Mary yesterday and sobbed. "I didn't mean to hurt her. The gun just went bang" and tickled my hand when it did."

He told Coroner Joseph Brodie he found the .38 caliber pistol "under the mattress" in the apartment where Joseph Pibolis, 35, a machinist; his wife Isabel, 28, and their five children lived.

Police said the mother had left Teddy in charge of the four other children while she went to a nearby butcher shop.

The boy found the gun, removed the bullets, and then later re-loaded it and pointed it at his sister. Then the gun "went bang" and the girl staggered two feet and collapsed in a pool of blood.

Before adjourning the directors passed a resolution recommending daylight saving time be adopted again this year in New Castle.

the sparsely filled court room together with their father, Charles. None of the relatives showed emotion upon hearing the jury's decision and none made any move to go to the defendant's side.

Remanded to Jail
The jury received the verdict with the same aplomb which he displayed during the entire trial, was remanded to Lehigh county jail.

He sat with his hands folded, head bowed and eyes downcast until attendants led him from the courtroom.

The jury received the case at 5:27 p. m. yesterday, deliberated more than four hours and returned last night for instructions from Judge Henninger. They were then locked up for the night.

This morning as court convened, Foreman Walter Andrews, announced that the jury had reached a verdict. The court clerk asked each juror to respond to his name.

Mistaking the question for a query as to the verdict, Andrews blurted out "guilty" and was then stopped by Judge Henninger. The jurist ordered the customary procedure to be followed in which the clerk formally asks the foreman for the jury's decision.

The jurist gave Creveling until Monday to file a formal motion for a new trial.

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—(INS)

—Authorities today continued to discount the "confession" of a waiter to the slaying of Mrs. Halie Oswald, an attractive 39-year-old divorcee.

Mrs. Oswald's nude body, inscribed with barely-readable messages, was found in a downtown Los Angeles hotel room last Wednesday.

Police said the waiter, Harry Gordon, emerging from a post-alcoholic state in the psychopathic ward at General Hospital, admitted:

"I killed her in the hotel room because I couldn't stand to see her suffer any longer."

"She had heart trouble and she gasped all the time. She kept crying for more whisky and my money was gone—I couldn't buy any more."

The officers said Gordon added: "I wrapped a towel around her neck and choked her until she was quiet."

However, autopsy surgeon Frederick D. Newbarr of the coroner's office said:

"There is no evidence from our autopsy that the woman was strangled."

Dr. Newbarr said tests showed the woman's blood contained more than double the amount of alcohol found in a person adjudged totally drunk.

Sharp Division Seen In Germany

A sharp division of political opinion in Western Germany which may affect seriously plans and hopes of the Allies for countrywide free elections and eventual unity appears to be developing today.

It centers about German participation in West European groupings. There are four chief protagonists of this plan for cooperation as a means of stemming the Communist menace and set all Europe on the road to complete post-war recovery.

Most Outspoken

The most strenuous and outspoken is West German Chancellor Dr. Konrad Adenauer, who first proposed an outright Franco-German union, perhaps even with a single government, and then reduced this to a projected economic pact as the initial step.

Winston Churchill then joined the chorus. He emphasized the vast extent of Soviet armament and the vigor of Communist aggression. He said that any tenable defense of Western Europe is impossible without German participation and conjured up the somewhat strange picture of British "Tommys" and German "Jerry's" marching side by side in battle.

Latest To Speak

The latest to speak for German participation in western agencies is John H. McCloy.

He told the Pilgrim's society in London that "tomorrow may be too late" for the regeneration of Germany on democratic lines in concert with her enemies in two world wars.

McCloy thereby expressed a fear that Communist propaganda, working overtime in preparation for the projected Whitsuntide youth demonstration and Eastern Zone elections scheduled for October, might at length succeed in Communizing all Germany, an aspiration that is still far from realized.

But he also probably had in mind political splits inside Germany itself.

There is no question that these have developed widely if not alarmingly since the Western German government was founded at Bonn.

Tries Middle Course

Adenauer has attempted to steer a middle course and while he probably has made fewer mistakes than many other men in his position would have committed, he has encountered a growing storm of criticism.

Much of this has emanated from the so-called neo-Nazi groups, the extreme Nationalists who must if possible conceal their real strength or face dissolution of the Allied high commission.

A great deal of concern is being voiced by Dr. Kurt Schumacher's Social Democratic group.

Schumacher and the other deputies have refrained from causing any new public disturbances in the federal parliament because the last one met with swift and sharp retaliation.

But these spokesmen are loudly vocal. Adenauer has found a productive campaign issue in the cent agreement under which France obtained a 50-year priority on the coal output of the Saar valley.

Extremely Sore Point

This is an extremely sore point with the millions of Germans.

Adenauer has been accused by his own countrymen of selling the Saar "Down the River" and they rule out any cooperation with France and the Council of Europe until such a time as the Saar is restored as an integral part of the German nation, which as things look now may be never.

The chancellor has plied his own countermen of selling the Saar "Down the River" and they rule out any cooperation with France and the Council of Europe until such a time as the Saar is restored as an integral part of the German nation, which as things look now may be never.

The French press has voiced almost unanimous opposition. This may not prove a great deal as the bulk of French publications today are left to one degree or another.

But the fact of the matter is that Germany is being pulled three ways—in one direction by Communists, in another by the Western Allies and in a third by its own political confusion. True, hoped-for unity seems farther distant now than any time since the end of the war.

No case your civic program is booked solid for the spring do not hesitate to throw out a violinist or a piano team or Lillenthal and his atom stuff to make room for me.

Not only am I going to speak but I am going to appear in full costume.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

(By International News Service)

Boston's experiment in using television on the common to scatter soap-boxers is attracting national interest. There is hope that TV will be more effective than pigeons.

This should take care of the low-out-gown-in-television issue too. It gets cold on the common after dark.

But it will be interesting to see how the Boston Red Sox draw against the Red Sox season and who has the most men left on base.

Commies don't get very far in Boston but there is no truth to the rumor that the Sox and the Sox are thinking of abolishing left field and having no field left of center.

It's too early to tell what kind of programs will appeal to the common but there may be an easy transition from soap box to soap opera.

Anyway, other communities are invited to observe the results of the Boston TV party.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Today . . . April 7th . . . is known throughout the world as Good Friday . . . the beginning of the end of Holy Week. We are a wee bit early for the article that we present at this time . . . but since the theme is based on the happenings that all the world is remembering today and Sunday . . . it seems only fitting that the Legend of the Dogwood Tree would be appropriate . . . Requests for the re-publishing of this article appear every Spring . . . we hope you like it . . . and may we say, clip this article for reference when the Spring blooms forth and the fragrance and beauty of the Dogwood Tree again pleases the individual.

THE LEGEND OF THE DOGWOOD TREE

At the time of the Crucifixion, the dogwood attained the size of the oak and other forest trees. So strong and firm was the wood it was chosen as the timber of the Cross.

To be thus used for such a cruel purpose greatly distressed the tree and Jesus, nailed upon it, sensed this in his gentle pity for all sorrow, said to it: "Because of your regret and pity for my suffering, I make you this promise: Never again shall the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used for a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender and shall be bent and twisted, and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross . . . two long and two short petals.

"And in the center of the outer edge of each petal, there will be nail prints. And in the center of the flower, brown with rust and stained with blood, will be a crown of thorns so that all who see it will remember it was upon a dogwood tree that I was crucified, and this tree shall not be mutilated nor destroyed, but cherished and protected as a reminder of My agony and death upon the cross."

When the dogwood again blooms . . . may we all remember this week-end of Holy Week.

PEEP'S DIARY

Coming Back From Britain

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

LONDON, England, April 7.—Tonight I fly into the red, white and blue wild yonder.

A hop skip and a jump and I'll be once more in my native land.

The hop is to Ireland, the skip is to Newfoundland, and the jump is to New York.

I would like to state right at this point that I am not being deported from Britain.

Scotland Yard has been perfectly darling to me, and told me that I was welcome on these shores for 24 more hours before it would cause me any trouble at all.

As a matter of fact, I am ready to return to the United States because I have one of my many money-making schemes in mind, and I think that this one, for a change, is going to work.

When I land at Idlewild Airport no one on earth will be any fresher from the British Isles than I. The other 60 or so passengers will be even with me, but I am hoping and praying that none of them has thought to launch immediately on a nationwide lecture tour.

Qualified To Speak

I feel that I am eminently qualified to speak on Britain. I wasn't there for just a day, or just a week, but I was there for TWO weeks.

And unlike so many journalists I didn't hang around No. 10 Downing street with Attlee, or No. 11 Downing with Bevan, or No. 12 Downing with Sir Stafford Cripps, or run down into the country and snatch a paint brush out of Churchill's hands in order to get the Tory viewpoint.

No, sirree. Not me.

I talked to the man in the street, on the bus, and in the pub, in the pub, in the pub, as a result, my head is simply whirling with facts about pubs—I don't mean pubs, I mean public of Great Britain.

In case your civic program is booked solid for the spring do not hesitate to throw out a violinist or a piano team or Lillenthal and his atom stuff to make room for me.

Not only am I going to speak but I am going to appear in full costume.

OVERLOOKED

The miseries of life he saw, The hurt, the wrong, the degradation; Men hindered by restraining law And found for them no explanation.

He thought that life should be easier be With not so much of hazard present; That birth should have a guarantee That man should know a day unpleasant.

But he forgot the soul within That grows to greatness under trial, And God's approval has to win By sacrifice and self-denial.

They Say

BELGRADE — Marshal Tito—"The stronger, the more prepared we are, the less we labor under illusions, the less we expose ourselves to dangers."

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia.—Mrs. Olga Bednasek, whose son Robert was acquitted of charges he murdered his campus sweetheart—"I always believed my son was innocent."

NEW YORK—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey—"We need, as we have never needed before, better education in all fields, both general and professional."

NEW YORK—Roving ECA Ambassador Harriman, asked if he had aspirations to become the Democratic candidate for governor of New York—"That is like asking you to beat your wife last Thursday."

Born in Sandusky, O., in 1851, Daniel Frohman obtained a common school education. Going to New York he became office boy on one of New York's great newspapers. He remained in newspaper work for five years, then became manager of traveling theatrical companies, then manager of several New York theaters, with a stock company of his own. He also managed both American and European stage stars. His brother, also a theatrical manager, died in 1915 in World War I, when his Europe-bound boat was sunk by a German mine. He died Dec. 26, 1940.

Pepper In The Soup

(By HOLMES ALEXANDER)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 7.—Whatever the outcome of this cockpit battle for the Democratic senatorial nomination, one thing is certain—Senator Claude Pepper, the old New Deal rooster, will emerge with his feathers badly ruffled and his dignity in tatters.

That much has already happened to Pepper under the merciless attack of his ambitious young adversary, Rep. George Smathers of Miami. Smathers, a major in the Marines who was elected to Congress in 1946, is slashing at Pepper where it hurts the most—the Senator's bar-headed liberalism which carried him to victory on Mr. Roosevelt's coattails in the New Deal's unbeatable years of 1936 ("We whipped the depression") and 1944 ("We're winning the war"). But what draws blood from Pepper's panting heart are two charges which Smathers is driving home to the people of this sun-kissed peninsula:

Two Charges Made

1. Pepper, though he talks all-out liberalism in Washington, is back-sliding furiously down here in Dixie where arguments for racial equality are vastly unpopular.

2. Pepper, though he claims to be alert to the Russian menace, has said a lot of complimentary things about Stalin and has always been a political soul-mate of Henry Wallace.

To a reporter who regularly covers Washington and knows Pepper's reputation for liberalism in the Labor salons, it's amazing to see him trying to get out from under that reputation now. Yet the other day Pepper came near bursting a blood vessel when photographers snapped him shaking hands with a Negro woman. And every day in fact in 10 or 12 speeches daily—Pepper is saying yes, no and maybe about his beliefs on a national Fair Employment Practices Commission, the hottest of all racial rights issues. It's a cinch that if Pepper survives this election, which is not certain, he will be a badly plucked chicken when he appears again in the royal courts of Washington liberalism.

Looks Shabby Indeed

There's no denying that on this stand-up-and-fight question of racial rights Pepper looks very shabby indeed. The more so because Smathers makes no bones about his own position. Smathers is against FEPC. He says so. He makes no dodges. But on the question of anti-Russiaism Pepper may come out all right, benefiting rather than otherwise by Smathers' wild assault. Smathers has named 24 allegedly Red organizations before which Pepper has appeared as a featured speaker. But, some of these occasions go back a number of years, and the organizations have changed hue several times since. There seems little sense in charging that Pepper gave war-time toasts to Stalin's health—so did Winston Churchill for that matter. And it is certainly beating a dead horse when Smathers flogs the political corpse of Henry Wallace whom Pepper once adored.

Pepper Is Scared

Yet Smathers is getting results so far. He's scared the daylight out of Pepper and forced him to make some embarrassing excuses. He's notified the whole South that Labor is putting on an Operation Carpetbagger by sending its organizers into Florida. And, most important of all, he's electrified the Democratic voters of Florida to a burning political awareness of what goes on in the U. S. A. of 1950.

Not even the Lehman-Dulles election last fall in New York was quite so clear-cut as this one. The Fair Deal domestic program is laid flat on the line. In these sleepy Southern towns you see Pepper posters which tell the story: "Roosevelt's Trusted Friend." (The old coattails appeal.) "Can You Afford to Get Sick?" (The case for Federalized medicine.) "Senior Citizens Need More Help." (The promise of retirement pensions.) "He Gets Things Done for Florida." (Raids on the Federal pork barrel.) "Friend of the Farmers." (Bigger and better farm subsidies.)

All these Welfare State aspects Pepper is for—and Smathers is against. Pepper is betting that people haven't changed their minds since 1948, but Smathers thinks that the dismal failure of the Fair Deal in Congress proves otherwise.

Wishful Thinking Won't Help

Wishful thinking by the candidates won't help on Election Day, but it does prove that history repeats its patterns. This Florida contest of May 2nd shapes up much as the last presidential election did in advance. As of today, Smathers is ahead on popularity polls but Pepper is running hard down the home stretch. Thousands of persons—the unorganized white collar classes—expect Smathers to win and may not take the trouble to vote. Thousands of other persons—the regimented union workers and the resentful minorities, mainly Negroes—are for Pepper. They'll turn out on Election Day, rain or shine. A more detailed analysis of the close-up politics will appear in a future column.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Happiness in bottles, for sale at the nearest drug store, is not yet a reality.

But who knows? It may be on the way.

Then, when happiness can be bought to be taken by the teaspoon or in capsule, the next thing may be "Success," guaranteed to bring you success in business, if taken regularly three times a day before meals.

And why not "Motherina"—four pills a day—and children will practically raise themselves!

Since I personally have no manufacturing facilities I pass the suggestion on to any of our large chemical concerns now busily engaged in the making of all sorts of wonder drugs that will eventually eliminate all sickness and perhaps death.

The details, as usual with my inventions, will have to be worked out by the firms' scientists. I can't be bothered with that sort of stuff.

The idea came to me when I saw three lectures advertised all in one day.

The first lecture, to be given by a Ph. D., was to be on "How to Make Your Marriage a Happy One."

The second was a success lecture. It was to deal with personality development, with the kind of clothes one should wear to impress people, with a lot of short cuts to success. Admission One Dollar—surely not a high price to pay for Success!

The third lecture, to be held at a Mother's Club was entitled "Child Raising Made Easy."

The lecturer was a "Miss"—and thus, consequently, undoubtedly not a mother—but what difference does that make nowadays? It seems to be theory that counts, not practice.

If it is so easy to tell people how to be happy and successful and good mothers, why can't it be made still easier by bottling or capsuling the stuff?

The modern tendency is to do everything by shortcuts.

Everybody wants shorter hours—although nobody has yet able to make the hour any shorter than sixty minutes.

Everybody wants more time for play. Everybody wants happiness, success, if he has to kill himself to get it.

There used to be a strange belief that hard work brought success.

People used to have the funny idea that happiness was brought about by observing the Golden Rule.

Motherhood was considered a sacred duty and a sublime privilege, an occupation that required love, responsibility, devotion.

But the world is wiser now. Life is fast becoming a drug store item.

Buy it in bottles. Put it on the shelf in your medicine chest. Take as directed.

But in the meantime, please don't forget the 19th verse in the third chapter of Genesis: "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread."

Which applies not only to bread but to just about everything else in life of ours.

The San Diego Teachers Association Bulletin tells about the small boy who presented a well-worn volume at the library return desk. The librarian glanced at the book, leaned forward to take in the size of the child, and remarked, "This is rather technical, isn't it?" Planting his feet firmly on the floor, the boy said, half defiantly, half apologetically, "It was that when I got it."—NEA Journal.

Sunday Schools Near Climax In Annual Contest

Seventh Report Brings Changes In Standings

With but one Sunday remaining in the Sunday school attendance contest sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School association and the New Castle Superintendents Council, Sunday school teachers and officers among the leaders are working at a feverish pace to improve their standing.

The seventh report of the eight weeks contest just released shows the Central Christian Bible school ahead in Division C putting the long time leader, the Nazarene church in second place in that division. First Methodist church moved from fifth place to third in Division D with schools having over 300 enrollment.

Easter Sunday attendance should swell the percentage points considerably. The seventh report follows:

Young Housewife Likes Coal Mining

BARNESBORO, Pa., April 7.—(INS)—Pretty, blonde Naomi Cerankoski would much rather mine coal than do housework.

The 28-year-old Barnesboro, Pennsylvania, woman admits, however, that she doesn't have much choice. She does both, and tends to her seven-year-old son as well.

Mrs. Cerankoski majored in being just a housewife when she was first married. But a year after her son was born, she offered to do the bookkeeping for her husband, Ted, an independent coal miner.

"One thing led to another, and pretty soon she was doing all kinds of work in the mines," her husband explained.

Cerankoski does the actual digging and heavy work in the small family mine. Naomi puts in ten hours a day operating the tippie, loading the trucks and weighing and delivering the coal.

Mrs. Cerankoski does her housework in the evenings.

"I don't like housework any more," the pretty coal miner-ess declared. "I'd much rather work in the mines."

DISTRICTS CHANGE

HARRISBURG, April 7.—(INS)—A bit of juggling of the state's Congressional Districts will be a job of the Pennsylvania State Legislature to be elected this year.

Redistricting the areas for congressional seats will be based on the results of the 1950 census. The presidential vote is involved.

Indications are that the state's 33 congressmen will be reduced to 31 because of a population decrease.

East Lackawannock

John Banjack, who lived alone on his farm on the New Wilmington road, received second and third degree burns when an oil stove exploded in his home at supper time on Monday evening. A passing motorist saw Mr. Banjack, wrapped in a blanket, rolling on the ground. He put out the flames and took the injured man to the Mercer hospital. Both fire departments from Mercer responded but were too late to save the house, but kept the fire from the barn. This was the former W. H. Cox farm. Mr. Banjack is reported in a critical condition.

Mud Bogs Down

Census Takers

CHICAGO, April 7.—(INS)—You can't keep a census-taker down on the farms when he can't get through the mud.

George H. Seward, regional director, said April's showers and its occasional snow flurries have stalled rural census-takers in Illinois, Indiana and Kentucky. Most of them have been switched temporarily to cities and towns.

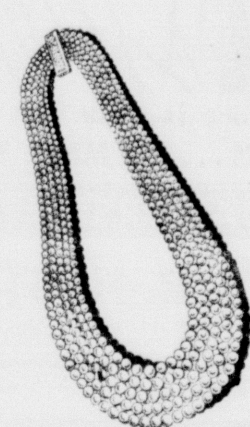

Seward added that rural enumerators will be paid for the time they spent in special training—even if they count only urban noses.

Early 18th century maps of the New World pictured the new lands as island off the coasts of Cathay.

Oil Company Driver Beaten And Robbed
PITTSBURGH, April 7.—(INS)—Police pressed a search today for two ruthless bandits who beat and robbed an American Oil company driver of $1,772 cash.

The holdup took place yesterday when the driver, John Rashak, 30, was en route to a bank in Southside Pittsburgh to deposit the funds.

A family who witnessed the stickup were too terrified by the ruthlessness of the holdup pair to interfere. Rashak was accosted when he stopped for a red light.

The men forced their way into his car and although he was squeezed between them, was ordered to drive a short distance around the block.

Frank Tafer, his wife and their seven-year-old daughter, in front of whom the car stopped, saw one of the holdup men slug Rashak repeatedly over the head.

The man then made off with the money bag containing $6,800 in cash and checks.

France Now Reports 'Flying Saucers'
PARIS, April 7.—(INS)—"Flying saucers" were reported today to have been observed in two localities of France.

Other accounts said that inhabitants of Chambery reported a saucer-like object in the heavens which left a trail of vapor.

Board To Meet To Consider Charges Against Dr. Sander
MANCHESTER, N. H., April 7.—(INS)—The three-man board of censors of the Hillsboro County Medical society will meet tomorrow afternoon to consider charges against Dr. Hermann N. Sander.

The censors declined to amplify the announcement that they would hold a meeting. They also declined to say where they would meet.

Dr. Sander last month was acquitted of a charge of "mercy killing" in the death of a cancer patient.

The state board of registration in medicine will hold a hearing Wednesday on the case.

District Heads Speak To City P.T.A. Council

Several Projects Discussed For Year At Meeting Here

"A strong, well-guided city parent-teacher council will strengthen and serve as an inspiration for the local units," said Mrs. Frederick Gerthing to the New Castle City Council of P.T.A. at the senior high school Thursday evening.

Delegates of the local units met to formulate several projects for the council and officially adopt the by-laws as set up by the organization. Mrs. Samuel Rashid, temporary president, welcomed the group, introducing Mrs. Frederick Gerthing, president of the City Council of P.T.A. of Youngstown, O.

"A city council is made up of all units within the city," stated Mrs. Gerthing, "and should guide and advise the work to be accomplished in each unit. It will also serve as a clearinghouse for the groups, helping to establish sound organizations in the city."

Youngstown Work

"Leadership training classes will provide valuable information for parent education and pre-school work. In Youngstown our program theme for the year is 'Our Children and Our Community.' We bring in various civic leaders to our meetings to give talks on what can be done for the children. Theater managers have cooperated and are now providing special Saturday matinees for the young people."

Mrs. Rashid then introduced Mrs. Kenyon Nicholl, president of the Southwest District of P. T. A. "It is fine to have a new council established in this district. New Castle has always been high in the number of representatives which they send to district meetings and leadership schools. Only in that way can the people get a broader outlook of what other units are working at and so set up definite principles and objects to follow within their own groups. Above all, a city needs a strong, unified city council and I cannot emphasize that fact too much."

Leaders Needed

"A leadership training school will be held in July at the Mansfield State Teachers' college. Meetings will be held for several days, with information given as to the actual method of establishing a unit, electing officers, committee work and a variety of projects that can be worked out by the city units. One doesn't realize how much more there is to learn about P.T.A. until he or she attends some of the classes. If possible, it is advisable to send delegates from each unit."

Mrs. Gerthing and Mrs. Nicholl then answered any questions that arose in the minds of those present. A discussion was held on the possibility of a school of instruction for the training of P.T.A. leaders in New Castle. Duties of officers were discussed and problems of finances.

A nominating committee was selected, consisting of Mrs. William McKee, Mrs. Mary Sands, Mrs. John Susko, John Cornelius, and Fred McClure. An election of council officers will take place at the June meeting.

Dr. Frank Burton, superintendent, John Cornelius, principal at Oak Street and Rose Avenue schools, Fred McClure of Mahoningtown and Peter Grizzle of the Lincoln-Garfield and Pollock schools were in attendance.

No Swing Lobby Tonight, Saturday

Mrs. Frank Gribben, supervisor, announced that no swing lobby sessions will be held this evening and Saturday evening.

Swing lobby will resume as usual next Friday and Saturday at the usual time in the Senior High school gym.

HERE'S A TIP FROM A WAITRESS

HOLDING THE BOOKLET "Handbook for Waitresses" she prepared after interviewing waitresses in Washington, Boston and New York, waitress Imogene Wright sits for photo after telling a Senate committee "A majority of waitresses would like to see tipping abolished and a minimum wage substituted." She says waitresses receive about $7,250,000 in tips a day. The senators are trying to figure out how Social Security taxes are to be levied on tips. (International)

Edenburg Methodists Will Observe Easter

Edenburg Methodist church choir will present a special program of music Sunday at 8 p. m. in the church under the direction of Evelyn A. Pacheco. The singers will be accompanied by Miss Rebecca Loudon at the piano. The program opens with a solo selection by Miss Pacheco followed by several choir selections. The program continues with a duet by Doris Book and Evelyn Pacheco; a duet by Ruth and Judy Roberts; a trio selection by Emma Bonn, Elfrida Raub and Pearl Roberts. At the intermission, a motion picture, a Chinese travelogue, will be given by Rev. Harry Johnson. Duet selections will follow by Ann Hammons and Judy Roberts, also by Worthetta Sloan and Donna Primavera. A solo selection by Miss Pacheco will be followed by two choir numbers to close the program.

Central Christian Easter Sunday Plans

Many special Easter events have been planned for the Central Christian church, East Long avenue.

An Easter Sunrise Service will be held at 6:30 Sunday morning by the High School Sunday school class. Alberta Scriven and Rose Seiler will be in charge of the program. Following the service a breakfast will be held in the dining room. The breakfast will be cooked and prepared by the men of the Homebuilders Class and served by the women.

Special music will be presented during the opening exercises of Sunday School by Clarence Frey, pianist, Evelyn Bernine, organist, and Donald Strobel, trumpeter. During the morning worship the adult choir will present two anthems and Mrs. Mary Lewis will have a special number. The sacraments of communion and baptism will be observed.

The Young Peoples Choir, directed by Mrs. Clara Zeigler, will present several special numbers during the evening service. Rev. James N. Rainey will give the message at both the morning and evening services.

Miss Katherine Good Dies In Meadville

Mrs. Lloyd W. Strayer, 426 Winchester avenue, received word of the death of her aunt, Miss Katherine Good, of 816 Market street, Meadville, on Wednesday evening at 10 p. m., following a six-week illness. She was a member of Christ Episcopal church, Meadville, and the Protected Home Circle.

Surviving are a sister, Miss Sarah Good, and a brother, Charles Good, both at home, a nephew and her niece, Mrs. Strayer.

Funeral services are planned for Saturday at 2 p. m. from the family residence with Rev. Paul Swartz officiating. Burial will be in Greendale cemetery.

Sampson Alliance To Close Special Series

Two weeks of prayer conducted in the Sampson Street Alliance church will come to a conclusion this evening at 7:30 o'clock, with a Good Friday service. The pastor, Rev. E. R. Truran, will be speaking on the Life of Christ, the Friday of His passion week. Special singing and prayer will feature the closing night. Many have attended the special services. A sunrise service is planned for Sunday at 6:30 a. m.

Service Tonight At Calvary Tabernacle

In observance of Good Friday there will be a special Communion and baptismal service this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle. Appropriate music will be a feature of the service.

Censures Prophets Of Doom

NEW YORK, April 7.—(INS)—I'm still young enough—but just barely—to regard with a fair degree of complacency the prospect of dying with my shoes on.

But I'll be darned if I relish being scared out of my socks every hour on the hour in the interim between now and my last mile. My beef is directed at self-appointed cassandras who insist on viping out New York with the first atom or hydrogen bomb flung by the enemy in World War III.

The nuclear destruction of New York City instantly in event of W.W. III is a matter of prestige for any potential enemy. Gen. Leslie R. Groves said last week in a speech reducing the metropolis to radio-active rubble in nothing flat. Naturally, the first reaction of New Yorkers was pleasurable pride at elevation of the city to No. 1 on the hit parade. But second thought has caused at least a few million of us to wonder if there isn't some easier way to achieve distinction or extinction.

Extremely Sensitive
Naturally, I am extremely sensitive to the honor of being selected as the prime target and to inclusion with the first two, three or four million victims of the next war. But if it weren't for the kudos connected with my fissionable demise, I'd just as soon live! As a matter of fact, there is at least a ray of hope in Gen. Groves' predictions. He is not certain whether the enemy will drop one or eight A- or H-bombs and just how high the casualties will run.

But there will be some survivors. The general, who headed the Manhattan project in World War II, did not say this in so many words, but he implied that not all New Yorkers will be tried to a crisp in the first five seconds by predicting that panicky New Yorkers, seeking to escape from the flaming ruins of their city, will overrun the New Jersey and Pennsylvania countryside like the wolf coming down on the fold.

In the General's opinion, New York will be a fiery furnace, fit only for Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-Nego.

Voice Agreement
Scientists and militarists both here and abroad voice macabre agreement with Gen. Groves. They have been arbitrarily dropping the first nuclear bombs on New York ever since August, 1945.

So naturally, people like us New Yorkers—cosmopolitan to the core—have gotten kinda case hardened to our impending mass cremation. We may not like it, but we have become accustomed to the idea. The thing that irritates us is the constant reminders of our fate.

Every week, somebody has to preach a funeral oration over us, and each time he paints our demise in terms just a mile more distasteful than last time. If the prophets would just keep their big traps shut, we are prepared to meet our fate like men. It's these crocodile tears that are killing us.

New Unpleasant Note
And furthermore, a most unpleasant new note has been sounded.

Just as we were prepared to go out like so many human torches in Nero's garden, some joker prints a story out of Russia that Stalin and Co. have got the last word in secret weapons: an ice bomb that will spread an eighteen-inch layer of the stuff over everything, including Hot Springs, Ark.

This new ice bomb is regarded, at least by Stalin et al. as far more deadly than the H-bomb. It will destroy all human life and there will be no New Yorkers to flee in terror through New Jersey and Pennsylvania, where they are not wanted in the first place.

This new ice age, under auspices of the U.S.S.R., is, to me, a far more deadly threat than any hellas-poppin that Gen. Groves or the science boys can dream up. As a direct descendant of Sam McGee, the prospect of dying cold and ingloriously in a suit of form-fitting red flannels is the ultimate threat in this current war of nerves.

I am doing a slow burn at this threat of a fast freeze. I hate cold weather. I am prepared to die with my boots on, but galoshes are out! I don't intimidate easy, but the prophets of doom are making me nervous.

Hot or cold, I wish they'd shut up.

Musical Family Basis Of Orchestra

Despite the laments of speakers of today on the lack of unity and harmony in family life as compared to the old days, a story has been brought to light which proves that the American family still exists.

Some years ago, three young sons of Mr. and Mrs. James Sewall, north of New Wilmington, amused themselves and their friends as they spent many hours learning to play various musical instruments and in learning the ballads which are a part of America. When the youngsters were still quite small, they began playing for neighborhood dances and parties as well as for home talent programs. Each year they added more numbers and more engagements to their routine until, at the present time, they are in almost constant demand.

They have appeared at various times in radio shows, benefit programs, as well as being popular for dances. The Sewall brothers are known as "Shorty," "Newt" and Glenn. With additional members: James Sewall, Sharon; Fritz Spruti, West Middlesex, and Ralph Buchanan, New Wilmington, they form the unit known as "The Keystone Pioneers."

New Report Of Sub On Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—(INS)—A new search for an unidentified submarine off the California coast was ordered by the navy Thursday following a report that a submersible surfaced off Oceano.

Three fishermen reported seeing a submarine come to the surface between 9 and 10 a. m. PST about one mile off Oceano, 15 miles south of San Luis Obispo on the central California coast.

Western sea frontier headquarters in San Francisco announced that navy planes and the coast guard cutter Alert were ordered to search the area.

The search will be under the direction of 11th navy district headquarters at San Diego.

Report To Sheriff
Three fishermen, not immediately identified, reported to the sheriff's office in San Luis Obispo. The sheriff's office telephoned the report to the commander of the coast guard cutter Alert at Morro Bay, 25 miles from Oceano. Unidentified submarines were reported sighted in the last month off the northern and southern California coasts and off the coast of Oregon.

The commander of the destroyer Colahan reported last Monday that he believed radar contact was made with one or two submarines off the northern California coast during a search last Thursday and Friday.

However, the western sea frontier headquarters officially reported that results of all searches were "negative."

NEWPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Stewart of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cardarella of Cuhogog Falls, O., and Joe Starrett of Lorraine, O., were here to attend the funeral of their uncle, Harry Allen.

Mrs. Frank Senator and Vernon of West Pittsburg visited her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huffman.

Chauncey Stauffer is able to be around after being ill at his home for a few days.

Faces Charge Of Altering His Bonus Check For $300 More

HARRISBURG, April 7.—(INS)—A 30-year-old Windber war veteran is under $500 bail today pending a hearing on charges that he altered his bonus check to collect an extra $300.

J. B. McFadden, chief investigator for the state treasury, identified John R. Bartie and said the ex-serviceman admitted falsifying the $150 check mailed by the Veterans Compensation Bureau. Bartie was held for appearance in the May term of the Somerset county court.

Bartie admitted, McFadden said, using a pencil to alter the first digit in the two place where the amount appeared on the check.

After the check was cashed, it was returned to the Treasury department where electrical detectors discovered the alteration during the routine processing of cancelled checks.

Elephants and lions are found on the lower levels of Mt. Kilimanjaro, Africa.

No Pedestrian Killed In Pittsburgh Traffic During February

PITTSBURGH, April 7.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Better Traffic committee reported today that not a single pedestrian was killed in traffic in Pittsburgh during February.

However, the 11-year-record was marred by 406 accidents in which 71 pedestrians were injured.

The first guide book was written by the Abbott of Thingor in Iceland about 1154.

Gertrude Nauman Has Returned Home

HARRISBURG, April 7.—(INS)—A 19-year-old Bryn Mawr college junior found in a Miami Beach hotel after a 12-day disappearance is home today with her socially prominent parents in Harrisburg.

The pretty, tawny-haired runaway, Gertrude C. Nauman, returned to her home last night with her father, Spencer G. Nauman, and an uncle, Conway H. Ginsted, of Chicago.

Hear Arguments
On City PensionCity Solicitors
Argue Objections

Before Judges W. Walter Brahm and John G. Lamoree arguments were heard Thursday upon the city employees' retirement fund. The plan has been attacked by Jacob F. Genkinger as being "wasteful of tax money" and "un-constitutional".

For the city, City Solicitor Robert M. White and Assistant City Solicitor Robert E. Jamison appeared. Mr. White presented preliminary objections to the pleadings of District Attorney Sherman K. Levine, who represents Mr. Genkinger. Mr. White claimed the wording of the pleadings is ambiguous and insists that the city ordinance speaks for itself.

It will be some time before a final decision is reached in the matter. In the meantime some of the veteran city employees who have been getting a small pension have had to go on relief, it is said. Until a decision is reached no payments are being made from the pension fund.

CIVIL COURT OVER

The first week of the April civil court term ended Thursday when the case of Silas D. Reed against Robert D. Bishop was continued. The plaintiff was on the stand and was describing what happened at the corner of East Washington street and Arlington avenue when the accident complained of occurred.

In repeating the conversation he mentioned the fact that insurance would probably cover the damages. This brought about a motion for continuance, it being improper to mention the fact that a car is covered with insurance, during the trial of a damage suit.

In the case of David E. Barber against Charles W. Robinson and Henry Hamilton a verdict of $200 was awarded the plaintiff. This was a case where the plaintiff had purchased a truck from the defendants and claimed the truck was not what it had been described.

All jurors were excused from further service. Another term of civil court will be held the week of April 24.

WANTS HER SHOWER

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Walpole had to wire up their shower valve after discovering that their cocker spaniel, Priss, was mechanically inclined. Four times in two weeks the Walpoles found the shower running and Priss merrily swishing about under the stream. She apparently had turned the valve with her paw.

City Pauses As Good Friday Is Commemorated

Men and women from all walks of life are pausing today as they think again of the scene enacted some nineteen hundred years ago at Golgotha, the place where Christ gave His life on the cross.

Impressive religious services took place this afternoon in the city during the three hour period representing the hours of Christ's suffering and agony on the cross. Bright sunny weather enabled hundreds to turn out for the services conducted.

Again this evening most every church in the city and county will be opened as candlelight communion services and other meetings are conducted in connection with Good Friday.

Easter Sunday will climax the observance which has been marked over the past few days. Record attendances are assured in most area churches.

Unclad Woman Is Reported On Streets Of California Town

NORWALK, Cal., April 7.—(INS)—A red-haired modern Lady Godiva minus a horse as well as clothes today became the immediate "most wanted" public enemy of Norwalk sheriff's substation deputies.

The appearance of the nude woman, described as about 23, may be a repetition of similar performances several months ago by a young woman who never was apprehended.

The first report that a unclad woman was at large came from nearby East Whittier yesterday. Said an unidentified caller: "Come quick! There's a nude woman running down the street."

Soon several other calls about the pink-skinned wanderer were received.

A surge of activity by the deputies was to no avail.

One excited woman reported she started to approach the bare young woman but that the latter ducked behind a tree and modestly donned a bra and panties she apparently carried in her hands, then darted away between two houses.

Early American colonists in New England not only forbade the celebration of Christmas as a holiday, but the singing of carols.

Express Drivers Get Safety Awards

Ten drivers of the New Castle office of the Railway Express agency have been presented with merit card awards for safe driving during 1949.

The awards presented by J. R. Searight, local express agent, Wednesday night at the New Penn hotel, represent a total of 60 years of driving without a preventable accident. The ten drivers received awards for two to thirteen years of safe driving.

The following drivers were cited: Jesse Ackworth, 13 years; Arthur Pioletti, 21; Henry Goughler, 10; Paul Conti, 6; John O'Pachen, 5; Howard Vaughn, 4; Les Corryea, 3; John Aeppli, 3; Gerry O'Hara, 3; and Jack Hare, 2.

W. H. Leber, division supervisor from Pittsburgh, attended the meeting and congratulated each driver for his fine achievement.

Mr. Searight added that from January 15 on, hundreds of similar presentations are being held at express offices throughout the country. Last year 358 ceremonies were held in that many cities with a total of 12,638 drivers receiving safety awards representing from one to fourteen years.

Flying Saucers Are Reported Seen Over Airport At Chicago

CHICAGO, April 7.—(INS)—Persons in two different sections of Chicago have reported seeing flying discs over the city's midway airport at the same time.

L. J. Schnedorf, chief engineer for a radio station, reported sighting two discs over the airport at 1 p. m. yesterday. Schnedorf said he saw the saucers from suburban Berwyn.

Then Willard Garner, 27, a singer, called newsmen to report he had seen "something very shiny, very high and traveling very fast thru the sky" in the general area of the airport as he walked on the city's south side.

WATCH YOUNG PIGS CLOSELY AT START

Most pig losses occur during the first three to four days, so the wise farmer provides proper care for the sow and her brood.

The caretaker should be ready to help in case of trouble. If the sow is restless, the pigs should be placed in a box or basket and kept away from her except at feeding time, until she quiets down.

Only short, chaffy straw should be used for bedding until the pigs are one week old. Guard rails help protect the young pigs when the sow lies down.

Floors tilted 1 1/2 inches to the foot help save the pigs from being laid on and crushed. With these floors the pigs go to the lower side of the pen, and the sow lies down with her feet toward the pigs. Pens kept clean and dry help prevent scours.

each cleaning process as easy as possible. Keep the equipment where it is convenient; keep the equipment in good condition. Follow the directions given with the equipment for its upkeep and repair.

By duplicating small cleaning equipment both upstairs and downstairs, you will save time and energy. A basket to carry the smaller cleaning supplies from room to room is also a time-saver. A metal basket can serve as a receptacle for ashes, matches, and other items to be discarded as you clean.

Ask the family for its cooperation in keeping the house orderly. If everyone is personally tidy and shares household tasks, you will find more leisure time for yourself.

Once you start planning for quicker and easier cleaning, you will find time and energy to enjoy other activities.

CHILDREN NEED GUIDANCE WITH THEIR SLEEP HABITS

One of the chief responsibilities of parents is to see that their children get enough sleep. Parents must remember that the amount of sleep varies with the age of the child. The child's actions usually indicate whether he is getting enough sleep. A new-born baby sleeps about 20 out of every 24 hours. At this stage in his development, it is a case of feeding and bathing him between sleep periods. As the baby grows, waking hours increase and sleeping hours decrease.

Children of pre-school age need 12 hours of sleep at night. Child specialists suggest that the afternoon nap of 1 1/2 to 2 hours be continued until the child is around five years old. Some children outgrow their napping time. More often it happens that a child will sleep some days and other days he will not rest at all.

If several sleepless days follow each other, it is best not to jump to the conclusion that the child no longer needs a nap. Possibly he is tired but hasn't had an opportunity to sleep. With a regular rest period each day, the child can doze off if he is tired, or rest quietly for at least half an hour.

Place emphasis on relaxation rather than sleep. It is often necessary for a mother to help her child get "settled down" for a nap or at bedtime. Telling the child to hurry and rest so there will be time for play will only defeat the purpose. Regularity and quiet play preceding periods of sleep or rest will be of most benefit to him.

Two-Month-Old Twins Make Trip To U.S. From Egypt

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—(INS)—Two-month-old twins arrived in Philadelphia today in an Egyptian cargo ship with their missionary parents. They had traveled from Alexandria.

The twins are Alice and David, children of Robert H. and Dorothea Meloy, United Presbyterian missionaries from the Sudan, Africa. They disembarked at the Khedive Ismail at Pier 3, North.

The father, en route with his family to their home in Clearfield, Pa., said the babies seemed to enjoy the occasionally rough crossing.

NEW YORK, April 7.—(INS)—A census-taker, Julius Wilson, 27, was under arrest today on a charge he took too much. Specifically, Wilson was accused of taking and trying to cash a tax refund check for $202 from a mailbox in a building he was counting.

State Capitol

See Foursome
Aboard TrainPolitical Talk Is Reported Aroused

HARRISBURG, April 7.—(INS)—Capitol Hill has another topic of political speculation concerning a top political foursome observed huddled in serious conversation in the diner of a train en route to Harrisburg. Members were University of Pennsylvania President Harold E. Stassen, gubernatorial candidate Jay Cooke, Republican National Committeeman G. Mason Owlett and Philadelphia Judge Nochem S. Winnet, candidate for the superior court. Cooke has the support of many GOP leaders allied with one-time U.S. Sen. Joseph R. Grundy, whose chief executive is Owlett, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers association. Judge Winnet opposes Judge Blair F. Gunther, the Duff-Fine ticket's candidate for the state superior court. Cooke was Stassen's Pennsylvania manager during the 1948 presidential campaign when the ex-Minnesota governor was a leading contender for the presidential nomination. Stassen's silence in the GOP factional dispute may be based on long range plans not to alienate any of the state's top GOPers whom he may need in 1952 when presidential nominators meet again.

The Pennsylvania Game commission released statistics on last season's small game kill showing total bag of 3,416,888 including birds and animals. Nimrods knocked off 36,304 ruffed grouse, the commonwealth's symbolic bird; 343,767 ringneck pheasants; 5181 quail; 26,748 woodcocks; 6,041 gallinules, rails and coots; 59,103 waterfowl; 265,135 woodchucks; 10,840 doves and 1,860,436 rabbits.

Toru Akiyama, Japan's vice minister of transportation, visited the Public Utility Commission to study operations. Mr. Akiyama is accredited to this country by the Department of Defense to study the United States transportation system. The Japanese representative has been observing the American "know-how" under the auspices of the Interstate Commerce Commission along with Saburo Ohta, a member of Japan's transportation council. ICC Chairman J. M. Johnson informed PUC Chairman John Higgins Jr. that Mr. Akiyama desired "very much" to visit Pennsylvania's commission. Arrangements were made to allow the Japanese transport expert to inspect the PUC's set-up. Akiyama toured the PUC's transportation section with Director Guy R. Johnson.

Less than an hour after Governor Duff fired James F. Malone Jr. from his post as insurance commissioner, a release came to the capitol newsroom bearing an announcement concerning insurance hearings and accredited to Malone. Malone was in Pittsburgh when the word came down that he was dismissed.

The Society of the 28th Division, Pennsylvania's National Guard outfit, will hold its special Memorial Day service on May 21 at the division's shrine in Boalsburg, Centre county. Veterans of the 28th of both wars and from many states will converge on the small town, nestled in the foothills of the Nittany mountains.

Would-Be Suicide Playing 'Possum
CHICAGO, April 7.—(INS)—A man can't be dead and disorderly—even if he's only playing "possum."

Judge John Gutknecht yesterday dismissed a disorderly conduct charge against Lex Caughron, a 27-year-old shipping clerk found lying on the floor of his Chicago home March 28 with a souvenir German rifle by his side.

Caughron said he feigned death to win the sympathy of his estranged wife, Charlyne, 24, who brought the charge. She is suing him for divorce.

Man Is Critically Burned In Blaze At Munhall, Pa.

MUNHALL, Pa., April 7.—(INS)—One man was critically burned and five families were forced to flee their apartments in a fire last night in Munhall's business district.

Clarence Beers, 65, was burned about the entire body before he was rescued from the restaurant-apartment building. Attendants at the Homestead hospital said he was not expected to live.

Cause of the blaze, which was believed to have started in the Beers apartment, was not immediately learned.

Flames were confined to the upper part of the building, but firemen said the restaurant below suffered heavy water damage.

College Sophomore Is Gunshot Victim

ROCKLAND, Mass., April 7.—(INS)—Authorities today investigated the death of a young Villanova college sophomore, victim of a shotgun blast shortly after he had arrived home on an Easter vacation.

The body of Robert Thomas, 20, was found on the attic floor of his home by his father, Adelbert, who told authorities the shotgun had discharged accidentally while the youth was cleaning it.

Dr. Jonah Fieldman, medical examiner, reported that the youth died of a gunshot wound in the forehead. He said the Thomas family told him Robert was alone in the attic at the time.

Dr. Fieldman said the youth, a member of the naval reserve officers training corps at Villanova and a mathematics major, was found lying near a chair. He said the shotgun was found nearby.

Woman Arrested As Last Of $4,000 Allegedly Stolen Had Been Spent

CHICAGO, April 7.—(INS)—A 39-year-old New York woman and her ex-convict husband were arrested in Chicago last night with only three cents remaining of the $4,000 she allegedly stole from a New York department store last December.

Detective Frank Jilek said Mrs.

Marticia Boyle admitted taking the money from Gimbel's department store where she was employed in the payroll auditing department.

She was seized with her husband Joseph, 31, at a Chicago hotel by police acting on a request from New York authorities.

The couple said they spent the money "traveling around the country". Mrs. Boyle said she wired an uncle, George Smith of Los Angeles, for money and he notified New York authorities she was in Chicago.

CROTON GUILD PLANS VARIED ACTIVITIES

Members of the Croton Wesleyan Service Guild gathered at the home of Doris Patterson, 738 Croton avenue, for their regular monthly meeting. Betty Jane Nelson acted as co-hostess. Special guests for the evening included Rev. and Mrs. Owen Shields and Miss Peggy Vogan.

Sixteen-year-old Union township youth, who recently was sent to an institution after having allegedly stolen autos here, escaped from the institution, stole a car, which city police recovered here, and is again being sought.

According to police, the boy fled from the institution near Philadelphia then stole an auto at Landville, near Lancaster.

State police sent out a broadcast here at 7 p. m. April 5. Thursday afternoon, Lieutenant Thompson, Cruiser Officer Cudbellis and Sheriff's Deputy Thomas saw the car parked near a railroad bridge at the confluence of the Neshannock creek and Shenango rivers.

The radio was blaring, and when the police approached, a young man leaped from the auto and fled across a bridge, leaving a suitcase behind.

Babson Discusses Effects Of Weather On Many Affairs

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright—1950—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)
NEW YORK CITY, April 7.—One of the chief topics of discussion here today is whether Dr. Irving Langmuir and his Harvard friends will succeed in making it rain.

Scientific Vs. Legal Phases
Of course, based on statistics, nature favors their reputation. Every day New York goes without rain, the chances increase that the rain makers will be "successful". If no rain occurs after they doctor the clouds, their experiments will be of some value; but if rain does occur, no one can tell whether or not rain would have come without this doctoring.

Perhaps the most interesting feature will be the results of the legal suits: (1) Those brought by business concerns—department stores, amusement centers and building contractors—who do not want rain, and (2) those brought by communities other than New York City who will claim that New York "stole" rain which they greatly needed. One thing the rain makers have accomplished. They are giving the gambling element something new to bet upon! So much for this New York experiment.

Watch Weather Maps
The real thought which I have in mind is to emphasize the importance of watching the daily U. S. weather maps as they appear in most city newspapers. My reason, however, is not to know per se if it is to rain or be fair, if it is to be colder or warmer; but how the change is to affect the behavior, disposition, judgment and courage of you and me. Upon these things our happiness and business success largely depends.

The first step is to learn how to interpret this weather map. The newspaper tells you what the weather will probably be tomorrow. But when making plans for advertising, business interviews, committee meetings, etc., we should know what weather conditions to expect a few days ahead. This we can usually do by studying the weather map. Certainly, every child in school should be taught how to forecast the weather from this daily weather map.

My Weather Rules

In my own life I use the weather forecasts as follows: Rule No. 1: If I want someone to take a favorable attitude or to answer "Yes" on some project, I wait for a cool and clear day with a rising barometer. (I have a barometer over my desk beside my clock.) I always can get better results by so waiting. Rule No. 2: If someone wants to call upon me whom I do not care much about seeing, I make a date when the day probably will be cloudy or muggy with a falling barometer. I have two reasons for this: (a) Because the person then may not have the energy to call, and (b) Because it will be much easier for me to say "No" when the barometer is falling and I don't feel well. Looking back on my life it seems as if 90 per cent of my mistakes were due to my not having the guts to say "No" and stick to it!

Watch Your Step

Rule No. 3: Last week Mrs. Babson and I celebrated our golden wedding. Naturally we—like every other couple who have been married 50 years—have had rows! But when—last week—discussing our experiences, it was evident that every serious "flair up" started accidentally over some very insignificant and unexpected word. With my present knowledge of weather psychology, I believe that the weather was an important factor in starting most of those unhappy days. Hence, my Rule No. 3 is to "Watch my step during such cloudy or muggy days" and keep away from other people as much as I can, remembering that the weather is making them "touchy" or a little ugly as well as it is affecting me unfavorably.

Rule No. 4: Finally, I no longer telephone the doctor when members of my family have pains or think they are sick without first looking at the barometer! If there has been a sudden weather change,

I say: "Cheer up. You'll be O. K. tomorrow. Today's aches and depression are due to a changing weather condition!" This forecast is usually correct and all the family are again feeling fine in a day or so. This barometer pays for itself every month. I wish I could be as successful forecasting the stock market!

Wachtman For Road Changes

Highway improvements in this section of the state were brought to the attention of the Highway Planning Commission, Wednesday in Pittsburgh by J. C. Wachtman, executive vice president of the Greater New Castle Association.

Mr. Wachtman represented the GNCA and urged first, the improvement of Route 18 from New Castle to Beaver Falls. This highway will be the feeder highway for the new turnpike in this district.

He also urged that Route 19 be made a four lane highway to Lake Erie, and that Route 88, the Ohio River boulevard, be continued on to New Castle.

He asked the planning commission to abandon three lane highways in future roadbuilding, making them four. Asked why, Mr. Wachtman said the three lane highway makes for more accidents than a two or fourway.

Mr. Wachtman also recommended to the commission that the ultimate widths of highway, that is the width to which the state can go if necessary, be increased from 100 to 200 feet. This in order to provide for future expansion and to deter building lines being established closer than 200 feet to a highway.

New York City built its first water system in 1776, having been served previously from wells.

WOMEN SHOULD DEMAND RESPECT

Why is it that girls do not demand masculine consideration and respect that was once theirs without asking? I am referring to "nice" girls who are either desperately willing to beg for it or who have never heard that man pursues woman; woman never obviously pursues man.

Here are a few such examples of feminine aggressiveness or thoughtlessness or desperation: A man and a woman walking in opposite directions recognize each other just as they dash by. Suddenly they stop and say "hello". He remains stationary while she walks back to shake hands with him instead of letting him walk the few steps to her. Sometimes I have noticed, the man neglects to raise his hat to her when meeting or parting.

Another one: The girl who stops at a man friend's table in a restaurant. He remains seated while she stands indefinitely without realizing that he is being, perhaps unwittingly, rude to her.

Then there's the kind of girl who tells the world by her glances and clinging vine technique that she is simply crazy about her male companion. This she shows by her adoring glances, her affectionate pats. Public demonstrations of affection are in very bad taste. And when the woman is the offender, especially without any co-operation from the object of her affections, the situation is even more ridiculous.

Among the more serious breaches: Tolerating a man's vulgar and profane exclamations, permitting him to relate in her presence risqué stories.

A woman receives only the respect that she demands. Don't sell yourself cheap!

Erie Youths Are Convicted

Face Life Prison Terms For Murder

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 7—(INS)—A county court jury on Thursday convicted two Erie, Pa., youths of first degree murder and recommended that they receive life terms for the January 15 killing of Ben H. Swan, Buffalo commercial photographer.

The defendants were Charles Nelis Ploss, 20, and his companion, Robert Leslie Pohl, 18, jointly indicted for the fatal shooting of Swan in his suburban Tonawanda home.

The state alleged that Swan met death when he interrupted a burglary in his residence. The district attorney, Gordon Steele, charged Ploss with firing the fatal shot and Pohl as being the lookout.

Sentence will be passed next Monday by Judge Carlotta A. Fisher.

Court Rejects Plea Of Pittsburgh Woman In Garrett Estate

PHILADELPHIA, April 7—(INS)—Orphans court in a per curiam opinion Thursday rejected the petition of Mrs. Eva B. Hoover that her claims to the Garrett snuff fortune be accepted for consideration.

The Allegheny county woman had asserted she was the unwanted daughter of Mrs. Henrietta Garrett.

In today's opinion, the court said "The petition cannot be entertained for the practice followed in its presentation is wholly improper."

Pointing out that a special master and examiners have passed on almost 28,000 claims to the $17,000,000 fortune and taken some 100,000 pages of testimony, the court declared:

"Neither may this or any other claimant be permitted to interrupt the orderly practice by a proceeding such as this in hopes of securing a special ruling on the disposition of his individual claim in advance of the filing of the master's report and adjudication."

The opinion added: "Manifestly, therefore, the only proper practice is to require all claimants to wait until the master's disposition and rulings on their respective claims come before the auditing judge in the shape of a report with findings and recommendations."

Mrs. Hoover had asked that a citation be directed to the administrators of the estate asking them to show cause why her claim should not be received and testimony taken.

Body Of Boy Found In Canal

FRESNO, Cal., April 7—(INS)—A crane operator Thursday found the body of a 4½ year old Fresno boy whose twin brother playfully pushed him into a swift flowing canal Wednesday night.

The body was discovered by Harry Smith, 30, a crane operator who was excavating for sand at a spot about two miles below where the victim, little Kenny Preston, disappeared into the canal.

The discovery climaxed a 12-hour frantic and extensive search for the boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Preston of Fresno.

Police Lieut. William Mortland quoted the parents as saying Kenny's twin brother, Jimmie, came home last night and informed his mother:

"I pushed Kenny into the canal and he went away."

Smith, who is the father of two little children, was nearly overcome by shock as he noticed the lad's body come up with his crane bucket. Smith had not been looking for the body.

The tragedy renewed a wave of public indignation over the unsecured canal and Mayor Gordon Dunn termed the unprotected waterway a "crime against the community."

Government May Be Forced To Buy Imported Cheese

WASHINGTON, April 7—(INS)—The government may have to buy imported cheese in its struggle with mounting dairy surpluses.

An Agriculture department spokesman says the government now is buying unprocessed cheese to keep prices at a certain level. But if the government buys processed cheese, as it has done in the past, there's a possibility that imported cheese may have been worked into it.

The spokesman confirmed reports that a large cheese processor is importing five million pounds of cheese from New Zealand because it's cheaper—in the face of the present U. S. surplus.

He points out, however, that no processed cheese will be bought under price support commitments. But processed cheese may be bought for the national school lunch program, he says.

The free lunch program is not directly connected with price support operations. It is, though, an extremely useful outlet for surplus government inventories.

Government buying of cheese and other support foods for the free lunch program, although not a price support device, often too has the same effect—keeping prices above support levels by blotting up surpluses.

The agriculture department last week bought a half million pounds of unprocessed cheese at 32 cents a pound. It now has 19,900,000 pounds of the stuff in its surplus warehouses.

Spring marks the beginning of the flush period in dairy production and the spokesman says the government is committed to buy million upon millions or more pounds of cheese.

And don't forget butter. The government owns about 90,000,000 pounds of butter now—much of it top grade—and it's beginning to buy heavily again.

Openings In Womens Army And Air Corps

Applications for the Women's Army Corps and Women's Air Corps are being accepted at the local US Army and US Air Corps recruiting station, it is announced by Cpl. L. A. Timmins.

Women accepted for the WAC or WAF are granted the same pay and opportunities given to men in the US army and US Air Force. The course of instruction parallels that of men, except in subjects of combat or tactical nature.

Special emphasis is given supply and administrative studies because women have demonstrated outstanding abilities in these fields.

School assignments are determined from information gathered during classification interviews, from results of tests, and from observations made during basic training. Final selection is made from those who meet prerequisites and who indicate that the course is within their field of interest.

WAC enlistees attend basic training school at the WAC training center, Camp Lee, Va., while WAF enlistees participate in basic training at Lackland air force base, San Antonio, Tex.

For further information concerning WAC and WAF enlistments contact your local recruiting sergeant located in the Post Office building.

Will you leave these to your children?

Men have died to leave you these 4 symbols of freedom:

A door key—your right to lock your door against illegal government force and prying.
(Fourth Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A Holy Bible—symbol of your right to worship as you wish.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

A pencil—freedom to speak or write what you think, whether you agree with the government or not.
(First Amendment, U. S. Constitution)

And a free ballot—your right to choose the kind of government you want—your protection against government tyranny.
(Article I, U. S. Constitution)

These symbols have no meaning in countries where government controls everything—for there the individual man or woman has no freedoms.

But there are people who are trying to give the U. S. government more and more control over American life. "Let the government start," they say, "by taking over certain industries and services—the doctors, the railroads, the electric light and power companies."

Most of these people—like most Americans—don't want a socialistic U. S. A. They have other reasons for government control. But when government, moving step by step, controls enough things, you have a socialist government, whether you want it or not. You'll be controlled, too. Then what freedoms will you be able to pass on to your children?

Pollock Pupils Present Clever Easter Program

Bugs, ants, and flowers invaded Pollock school on Thursday afternoon during the annual Easter program presented at the school.

Narrator for the afternoon was Mary Louise Mele, introducing Rees Flannery who played the "Holy City" on his trumpet. The "Easter Story" was then read by Jacqueline Massaro. Clever recitations were given by David Cotelesse, Donna DiMatteo, Isabelle Pagley and Marion Pugh.

A chorus, made up of sixth grade girls, then sang a lovely Easter hymn. Mrs. Mildred Rosenberg's second grade class then entertained with a choral reading, "Come With Me." Two Easter songs were sung by the group, ending with "Peter Cottontail." Miss Janet Milson assisted with the second grade program.

Operetta Given

An unusual operetta was presented by the fourth grade, under the direction of the Misses Pearl Hillard and Ruth Weir. "The Easter Lily" takes us back in imagination to the naming of a flower to be the Easter symbol. An angel, is searching for a special flower that is kind, humble, generous and brave. That the lily has all of these qualities is confirmed by the butterfly, ant, bee, and toad whom the lily has helped in various ways. The search is ended when the lily displays her petals of spotless white, the final essential attribute.

Characters of the operetta were Lily, Adeline Ludevick, rose, Mary Ann Gervase; jonquil, Jean Ann Storza; carnation, Julian Passarella; pansy, Alice Grannis; angel, Lena Cassella; butterfly, Joe Bulano; ant, Gerald Patton; bee, Domenick Esposito; and toad, Angelo Fornataro.

The flower chorus was made up of girls of the 4-1 and 4-2 class. Costumes were designed by Danny DiCarlo of the sixth grade, assisted by Mike DeMarco, Mary Louise Mele, Myra Venditto, and Marie Galucci.

Jack Herbert, who has been acting life guard at the pool on and off for nearly 30 years, was appointed caretaker of the pool.

The council ordered the purchase of a truck from the Kauffman garage, at the meeting.

Medical Society Hears Dr. Mateer

Physicians Plan
Future Meetings

Dr. Frank M. Mateer, of the Department of Medical Research, of the University of Pittsburgh, was the speaker at the Lawrence County Medical Society meeting Thursday evening at The Castleton.

Dr. Mateer illustrated with slides his talk, which was entitled, "Electrolyte Metabolism in Diabetic Acidosis."

Dr. Mateer explained that diabetic acidosis was essentially a deficiency state of certain electrolytes in the body. The principal deficiency in diabetic acidosis consists in the deficiency of insulin, water, sodium, chloride, carbohydrates, and potassium.

The treatment of diabetic acidosis consists in the intelligent replacement of these items in which the patient is deficient.

Dr. Mary Baker Davis, president presided during the important business. Dr. Donald Burke of Pittsburgh, will soon be a pediatrician in this city, and has been accepted into the Lawrence County Medical Society.

Delegates were elected to attend the annual state meeting of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania. The session will be held in the fall in Philadelphia.

Dr. Mary Baker Davis, president; and Dr. W. E. Flannery, secretary are the delegates, and alternates are Dr. C. H. Whalen, and Dr. J. L. Popp.

An interesting discussion followed the speaker's talk last evening and afterwards a lunch was enjoyed by the members.

Several announcements were made pertaining to future meetings.

The Wednesday evening, May 3 meeting will be held in the Overlook Sanatorium. The event will be a dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m., with the speaker to be Dr. Guy Williams, Jr., a neuro-psychiatrist, of Cleveland, O.

On Wednesday evening, June 7, the society will have their annual banquet at the Ellwood City Country Club, with physicians of Ellwood City in charge of the program.

Action Unlikely At Present Session On Truman's Request

WASHINGTON, April 7.—(INS)—Congressional action on President Truman's request for broadened unemployment compensation legislation appears today to be unlikely this session.

The legislation which would boost jobless benefits paid by the government may reach the hearing stage but no floor action is anticipated before adjournment.

Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, which would consider the measure, declared that it would be "improbable" that both the House and Senate can act before adjournment.

Writing Tax Legislation

Doughton's House group at present is busy writing tax legislation asked by the President and would be unable to initiate any action on the unemployment proposals until May or June.

Doughton suggested that the jobless program might be tacked onto the House-approved Social Security bill but Sen. George (D) Ga., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, was unenthusiastic about the idea.

George pointed out that such a move would necessitate the reopening of hearings on the legislation.

Senate majority leader Lucas (D) Ill., declined to comment on any possible course of action. House majority leader McCormack (D) Mass., however, promptly introduced a bill embodying the President's recommendations.

Preparing To Start Work On Route 422

The new 422 highway bridge over the Slippery Rock creek at Rose Point will be on the former site of the cottage shown here. The cottage is being moved by "house movers" to a new site along the Slippery Rock creek. The building is owned by Everett Anderson and was situated on the right of way of the new road.

Pictured here is one of the "motor pools" set up by contractors, for work on the stretch of route 422 between Rose Point and New Castle. This motor pool is located west of Rose Point. In it are many of the heavier pieces of grading equipment needed on the road. The equipment belongs to J. R. Holderman & Sons, contractors.

In The Open

The doleful plaint of the Trout Widow is once more heard in the land. There are Golf Widows and Poker Widows and Convention Widows. They lament their sorry plight loudly and perhaps with just cause. But the Trout Widow complains only half-heartedly, for she cherishes the eternal small boy in her angling spouse and knows well that the man who loves the quest of finny game has evolved his own philosophy of contentment, which makes him ever tractable and amenable — except during those hectic weeks known as "trout season."

In a few more days a whole army of booted and jacketed fishermen will invade the high country where cold mountain streams claw their way through the ancient hemlocks. Oil lamps will glow in remote valleys and the ruffed grouse will strut his drumming log in chill dawn air scented by ham and bacon frying over a thousand wood-chunk fires.

To be sure the present-day angler will catch trout hatched by machinery and raised in ponds. They will be stocked in his favorite stream after having been fattened on chopped liver. But it doesn't cause too much of a strain on the imagination to picture these tasty morsels as the "gold-sprinkled living arrows which once inhabited the white water; able to loiter in the rapids; whose dainty meat was the glancing butterfly."

Many years ago the master of the craft set down in ageless phrases that angling was the contemplative man's recreation. Perhaps so—with the still-fisher who jams his pole in the mud and lazily watches his cork bob idly on the mill pond. But the avid troutster as he makes stealthy approach is more alert for the flash of a turning fish than for pastoral musing. With his senses go all his thoughts. He has no time for idle day-dreaming.

While he has rod in hand Mother Nature is a fish woman; and nothing more. Though he wears the cloth his thoughts trend not to religions; though a statesman, not to politics; though a scholar, not to science; though an artist, not to the art of angling. Once a trout takes his lure his mind is far from all but the matter in hand. Heresy and paganism may prevail, the light of science be quenched, the country go to the dogs; pictures go unpainted till he has saved this fish. While he angles, the complete angler is certainly not a contemplative man.

Nothing Fears A Fisherman

The fisherman is a kind of vagrant that nothing fears. He blends himself with the trees and the shadows. The wild birds of the trout country know that he has no designs upon them, and the animals see that his mind is in the creek. The angler plunges eagerly into the limpid rapids, as though to let his roily thoughts run clear as the sediment goes downstream.

There is only one social hazard in trout fishing, or in all fishing for that matter. It is next door to an impossibility to be a chronic fisherman and not become a chronic hyperbolist. A truthful fisherman has a right to pass into the list of heroes who forbore environment and gave the lie to centuries of precedent.

Many good men and true cast aside all fine ethical distinctions as soon as they get a fish pole in their hands. When they have donned their boots and have hold on a reel and a fish basket, then farewell, beautiful truth. For all his tall tales, the confirmed angler gets a tremendous spiritual and mental lift from his days astride. When he falls in the icy torrent, as he always does, the sudden shock release tension built up in the fierce competition of his workaday world.

Trout Widow Gratified

His Trout Widow, wise with woman's intuition, knows all these things. She offers much caustic comment, but is secretly glad to see her angling better-half head for the high country and his annual seventh inning mental stretch while the trout dart beneath their coverts.

There will be a noble churning up of small brooks as minnow fishermen seine for their favorite lures. Soon will begin the gaudy dismemberment of angleworms as the dunker "drowns" his garden hackle. Purists will wade the streams casting artificial flies and nymphs, looking down their noses at the bait fishermen. Old Isaac Walton would be amazed could he come back and see the vast army of his devotees.

"Behold the fisherman! He rouseth early in the morning and disturbeth the whole household. Mighty are his preparations. He goeth forth full of hope, and when the day is far spent he returneth, smelling of strong drink, and the truth is not in him."

Ciggie Smuggler Is Snuffed Out

LIVERPOOL, Eng.—(INS)—Seaman Tadeusz Kazymuski, 26, recently told port police authorities of a plot to smuggle cigars from a Spanish ship in Liverpool docks.

Tadeusz gave careful details of the smuggling attempt, emphasizing that two taxis would leave the docks at the appointed time. The first would be a decoy—while the second would contain the cigars and the man they wanted.

But port police officials are notoriously unromantic. They stopped the first taxi and found nearly 10,000 cigars—and Tadeusz. Tadeusz is appealing the $420 fine.

Hard Coal Output Dropped 25 Per Cent

WILKES-BARRE.—Hard coal mines produced 25.5 per cent less coal in 1949 than in 1948.

The estimate was made by the Anthracite Institute in its weekly bulletin. The institute blamed the sharp drop largely on "the record-breaking warm weather which prevailed all through 1949."

The institute estimated 1949 anthracite production at 40,410,000 net tons, compared with 54,229,000 in 1948.

All the blame can't be placed on the weather, the institute bulletin said yesterday. Also contributing to the production drop were "competitive fuels," gas and oil.

Every day in the United States there are at least 6,000,000 persons who are, too ill to carry on their regular work.

Far East Cemetery For U.S. War Dead

MANILA.—(INS)—American military authorities have launched plans to start building a final resting place for the remains of American soldiers who died fighting Japan.

But these plans will not materialize until U.S. Army investigators have completed recovering and identifying American war dead in the Philippines and other Far Eastern countries.

So far, American Graves Registration Officials believe they have completed the bulk of their assignment, reducing the number of "unknowns" among 14,000 American dead already recovered and buried on Philippine soil to less than 10 percent.

Greek philosophers taught that the world is round, although this knowledge was later lost to mankind for centuries.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

WHAT ABOUT THE FAMILY CAR?

Is the family car really the family car or does it belong only to dad, to mother or both of them? When children grow old enough to drive, the issue may become a burning one. But even before that, the question is pertinent.

If children are permitted to help keep the car clean, if dad or mother lets them operate the windows and explains how various things work, they will have a different feeling than if they are kept away except when parents are right on hand. Naturally, youngsters will have to learn not to play with the starter or with some of the other equipment. But it is a good idea to help the junior members of the family feel that the car is also theirs. The problem of who shall use the car and when becomes an important one when there are young people in the family. If there is a spirit of give and take in the family, if parents don't always come first or feel that even though they have said Junior might use the car, it's perfectly all right to change their minds, there should be little friction. Youngsters who have been treated reasonably are almost sure to be reasonable themselves.

Youth Fellowship Will Give Pageant

First Presbyterian and First Methodist churches will meet in a union service this Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in First Methodist church. At this time an Easter pageant will be presented by the Methodist Youth Fellowship under the direction of Miss Marilyn Reeves and Miss Paula Allison.

One of the features of the Easter pageant will be several numbers by the junior choir. Those taking part in the pageant are Frank Conner, Martin Hornung, Carol Clark, Theresa Sparano, Paul Dewberry, Kenneth MacDonald, David Clark, Carrie White, Mary Jo Roberts, Thomas Phillips, Dorothy Cifra, Barbara Blose, Fred Blose, David Holsapfel, Freda Holsapfel, Phyllis Lutz, Richard Bowden and Donald Bowden.

"PUT FOOT INTO IT"
JOHNSTOWN, Pa., April 7.—(INS)—Four-year-old Donald Black really put his foot into it. Firemen had to be called yesterday when the lad stuck his foot into a coffee percolator and his mother couldn't free him.

One of the earliest methods of telling time was that of burning a piece of rope, in which knots had been tied at intervals. When the rope had burned to one knot it was 1 o'clock when it reached the second knot it was 2 o'clock, and so on.

JAPAN BOOSTS OIL
TOKYO—Japan set a postwar record for oil production in January with 154,105 barrels. Output was 131,555 barrels for December and 81,525 for January, 1949. Japan's own wells never have been able to supply much over 10 per cent of the country's requirements.

Studying New Method To Rid Plants Of Insects

By AL SPIVAK
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

HARRISBURG, April 7.—Researchers working to rid plants of insects via radio-transmitted poisons today are planning to extend Pennsylvania experiments.

If proved successful, experimenters say, the development might slash the $24 to $30 an acre farmers now pay to spray fields of insects.

The Research Division of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Co-operative Association, which has been conducting the tests reports successful results in one fourth of the completed experiments.

Plan Further Tests

B. A. Rockwell, research director for the cooperative, says that further tests will be carried out in coming months.

According to Rockwell, three inventors have produced a machine which utilizes radio waves to project poisons onto plants. He describes the machine this way:

"Operation is based on the principle that molecules of water vibrate and generate a voltage. The molecules broadcast electrical impulses in a manner similar to tiny radio stations."

"Every plant has its own vibrations, too, and these are tuned to a certain frequency. The machine determines the frequency of a plant. It then amplifies the vibrations of poisonous molecules and transmits them on the selected frequency."

"Poisons have their vibrations just as tones and the machine's secret is that it can pick up these vibrations and transmit them along the frequency of a chosen plant."

Can Be Determined

Rockwell says that a plant's frequency can be determined by submitting a sample, such as a leaf or a petal, to test by the machine. Frequency of wide areas, such as corn fields, can be obtained by aerial photographs made with properly-treated negatives, he adds.

The technique is called the UKACO process, a name derived by combined initials of the inventors: H. H. Armstrong, of Newport, Pa., a chemist and professional inventor; Curtis P. Upton, of Sunol, Cal., a civil engineer, and William J. Knuth, of Corpus Christi, Tex., a radio and television engineer.

Rockwell says that only three of the new machines are in existence, and the reason he has been granted use of one of them is that he represents a non-profit organization.

"I have reason to believe that we obtained a low percentage of positive effects in our tests in Pennsylvania because the machine we used was faulty," Rockwell says. "Experiments in Texas, Florida, and California have shown 70 to 80 per cent positive results."

Proved Definitely

"It has been proved definitely that the machine can purge plants of poisons just as easily as it can transmit poisons to them," Rockwell says. "Perhaps in time this might be applied to purging humans of poisons diseasing their bodies."

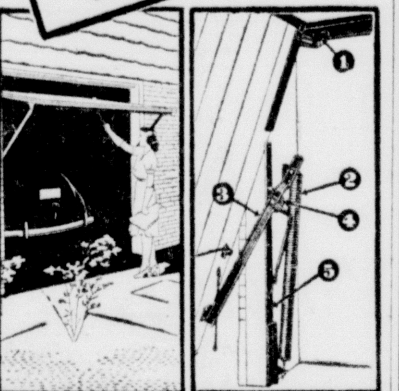

"We assume all life is in electro-chemical balance. Broadcasts by the machine change this balance in the plant treated. When poisons are added, an insect eating of the treated plant will die."

"By the same token, when poisons are removed, the balance is changed another way. There is the possibility that changing this electro-chemical balance in humans might aid some day in fighting disease."

Rockwell cites water as proof of electro-chemical balance. The formula stands for the chemical elements hydrogen and oxygen. Hydrogen shows positive electrical character while oxygen is negative. If their balance were different—if both were positive or negative—they would repel each other. There would be no water, he says, and the world must have water to survive.

In every inch of clear sea water there are about a million and a half dustlike particles, each one-fifty thousandths of an inch in diameter.

S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A. Plans 'Parade'

Sound your "A" professor, the music is about to begin.

Not immediately, that is, but on April 22 in the Cathedral. That's the night for the annual "parade" of quartets of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Crowd Last Year

Last year was the first year the local chapter of the Barber Shoppers staged a "parade" and with hardly more than a few announcements the affair drew about 1800 people. When it was over the spectators voiced their approval in no uncertain tones.

This year the "parade" should be even bigger. Quartets from Toledo, Pittsburgh, Sharon, Lorain, Wellington, O., and Grand Rapids, Mich. This in addition to the local chapter's quartets and the United Chorus.

From Grand Rapids will come the "Famous Harmony Halls," the international champions of 1944. This quartet has been selected by the United States government to tour American armed forces stations in Europe next June in the interest of harmony singing among the troops.

The "parade" here will be anything but long hair. It will be old fashioned barber shop singing with the tenors reaching out into the wild blue yonder and the basses going into the basement for the low ones.

April 22 is the night and the Cathedral is the place. On that night you'll hear more barbershop quartet singing than you have heard in a year and all of it will be good.

AS QUIET AS AN OYSTER

We might all learn from the oyster to not talk too much.

Oysters are good to eat. It takes about six large ones to provide 100 calories but the good taste makes up for the deficiency.

Mom usually fries them or steams them in milk or bakes them with bread and milk. That boosts up the calories and keeps the good flavor.

She is pretty wise. She knows that Dad and Buster like something which tastes good. It may not have vitamins nor protein nor calories, but the good smell and taste mean a lot to Mom.

Community Drive Assures Bessemer Of Night Baseball

Citizens Proud Of Work, Will Be "Boon" To Sports

Night sandlot baseball is coming to Bessemer. A community-wide drive for $10,000 to finance the lighting of the baseball field in the southwest of Lawrence county is now underway and appears certain of reaching its goal. The fund campaign ends a week from Sunday and construction will start so that the lights will be ready for use sometime in May.

Many Are Interested

Jim Martin, manager of the Bessemer Cementers in the Lawrence County Baseball league has been plugging for lights for several years and this season has found many others who are interested in helping to finance the project.

The lighting plan calls for eight, 70 foot wooden towers with 15 powerful floodlights on each pole. It will supply 238,000 watts of power for lighting the community field in Bessemer which is used by the high school teams as well as the Lawrence county league entry.

The system to be used is the type generally recommended for municipal and semi-pro ball fields.

To Aid High School

There is a strong possibility that Bessemer high school will use the new lighting system to provide light for the football games.

The lighting system as well as the field is strictly a community project. The Lawrence County league team will not have exclusive use of the project. However, Jim Martin's crew plans to play 50 night games, starting at 8:15, at home this season and will not play any Sunday baseball at home.

In addition the field may be used for playoffs and possibly an all-county baseball tournament at the end of the season. In addition lights, pageants and any other Bessemer endeavor may use the new system.

The defending champion Cementers of the Lawrence County league will use the field on a non-profit basis. The players on that team have voted to use all proceeds over net operating expenses for a recreation fund in Bessemer and to improve children's playground facilities.

First In County

The move represents the first time a sandlot team in the county has had a field for night ball. Bessemer is probably the smallest community in this part of the state that has been able to finance such a project. The new lights will be a boon to county sandlot baseball in general and the Lawrence County league in particular.

Jim Martin is temporarily heading up the drive. He said today that he has received excellent co-operation on all fronts. Members of the county league baseball team have been instrumental in the campaign for funds. These players include Paul Johnson, John Samsa, Paul Madrid, Bill Pelt, Marv Donaldson, Don Anderson, Wilbur Kurler, Wilbur Anderson, Len Galanski, Carl Nord, Bob Rowe, Jack Grubisa, August Anderson and Don Vrabel.

Civic Leaders Help

Martin also stated that the whole move would be impossible were it not for the excellent cooperation of the very civic-minded Bessemer Limestone & Cement company represented by Harry Reed. This company has not only offered to help financially, but will also deduct pledges for the fund from company payrolls. The Metropolitan Paving Brick company has offered similar help. The People's Bank of Lawrence county, Bessemer branch, will also collect pledges paid weekly or quarterly. Charles Weitz, head of the bank, is serving as treasurer of the campaign.

Many Bessemer civic leaders are also taking an active part in the community project. These include

Skee Riegel Leading In Master's Tourney

By CECIL BROWNLOW

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 7.—Former National Amateur Champion Skee Riegel—still in his six-month trial period as a professional—led the nation's best golfers into the second round of the $10,000 Augusta Master's Tournament today with a three-under-par 69.

The Tulsa, Okla., fashion plate shot a brilliant 33 on the outgoing nine and came back against stiff winds with a par 36 in the opening round yesterday.

He registered six birdies on the 6,900-yard course and slipped over par only three times.

The man with the green shoes, chartreuse slacks and lavender sweater held a slender, one-stroke lead over a pair of two-time Masters' champions, Jimmy DeMaret of Ojai, Cal., and Horton Smith of Detroit.

Also knotted at 70 were Australian-born Jim Ferrier, now of San Francisco; Lawson Little of Monterey, Cal., and Herschel Spears of Huntsville, Ala.

Snead Has 71
Defending Champion Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., favored to repeat his 1949 victory, tied with Toney Pena of Cincinnati at 71.

John Palmer of Badin, N. C., was one stroke back with the first round's only even-par 72 score. Benjam Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., making his first tournament appearance since the Phoenix, Ariz., meet named in his honor, shot a one-under-par 35 on the first nine but skidded to a 38 on the backstretch for 73.

Sharon's Andy Butchko was an honorable mention choice on the All-Big Ten basketball team.

Stanley Carr Heads K.P. Sports Club

Stanley Carr was elected president of the K. Pulaski Sports club at a recent meeting, and Edward Tomson was named as vice-president. It was announced today.

Other officers elected were: Louis Kwolok as secretary and treasurer, and the following as trustees: Joe Hnat, Joe Jendrysk, and Stanley Boda.

It is the work of this group that keeps athletics alive at the popular Atlantic avenue club, with basketball being the biggest item on the sports agenda. Eddie Carr did a fine job the past year as business manager of the basketball "Big Five."

Dick Wakefield hit only .206 for Detroit last season but will draw $17,500 as a Yankee this year.

Y Tournament Finals Tonight

Finals in the YMCA Cadet tournament will be staged tonight at eight o'clock. A consolation contest is scheduled for seven.

Last night the Lighthouse quint earned its way into the finals with a 38 to 30 win over Kaufman's of New Wilmington. Gerson's made the finals bracket with a 62 to 53 victory over the Scotties.

Both games on tonight's card shape up as thrillers.

Awards and all-tourney teams will be announced at the end of the second game.

Reed-Hutchison Star

In two other contests with spectator appeal, the first all-tourney team of the Y junior tournament recently completed, edged the Second team, 57 to 49. The winners trailed most of the way but Don Reed and Tom Hutchison sparked a last period rally that netted 26 points and a win.

The judges selection of the all-tourney team were also vindicated in the game between the Third and Fourth teams. Bill Emery laced 31 markers as Third team trounced the Fourth, 77 to 38.

Johnny Wilson, Stanislaus Kiegal; Ben Jehy, Morris Jebaltowsky; Jack Britton, Willie Breslin; Freddy Welsh, Fred Thomas; Battling Siki, Louis Phal; Tommy Burns, Noah Brusso; Young Corbett, Ralph Giordano; Gerhardt Steffens, Willie Ritchie.

Jack Delaney, Ovila Chapdelaine; Jack Dillon, Ernest Price; Battling Levinsky, Barney Lebowitz and Kid Williams, Johnny Gutenko. All of the foregoing won a championship in some division, according to a study Here & There made of record today. Every class, except flyweight is represented by some name in the group.

Some local fighters of years ago were not averse to using other than their correct name, which was as follows:

Jimmie Dime, James Fox, Tony Ross, Rossilano or Russo, Here & There is not certain; George Chip, George Chipulonis; Battling Terry, Eugene Peluso.

Dan Dailey was not the correct name of the heavyweight; neither was that of Patsy Murphy. Jimmie Dunn, Tom McMahon, Tommy Jones, Paris Cangey, Eddie Weygant and Babe Picato used their own names, except Picato's correct first name, was not Babe.

Just to go back a few years, permit it to be typed: Dime was one of the nation's best 128-pounders.

Dunn fought Abe Attel, Freddy Welsh and Harlem Tommy Murphy, the former two becoming a champion.

George Chip made the grade as the middleweight champion. Tom McMahon fought Jess Willard, Bob Martin, A.E.F. champion and other topnotch heavies.

Battling Terry milled with Johnny Kilbane, Packy McFarland, Joe Welling et al.

Tommy Jones met Jimmy Duffy, lightweight title contender. Patsy Brannigan boxed several champions, including Kilbane and Kid Williams.

Picato fought Matt Brock, George Chaney and other topnotchers. Weygant boxed Danny Frush, Danny Kramer, and other high-class opponents.

Paris Cangey met Freddy Fitzgerald and other good ones in his division.

Michelsen Turns 'Deaf Ear' To Offer From Penn State

PITTSBURGH, April 7.—(INS)—Football Coach John Michelsen was still head mentor of the Pittsburgh Steelers today, having turned down an offer to go to Penn State as head coach.

Michelsen told Dr. Carl P. Schott, Dean of the school of physical education and athletics at Penn State, that he was "extremely contented" to remain with the Steelers.

At a luncheon meeting with Dr. Schott in Pittsburgh yesterday, Michelsen asked that his name be withdrawn from consideration for the Lions football post.

No Specific Offer

Michelsen was approached to take over the $6,000 job vacated by Joe Bedenk. Just this winter, Michelsen signed a contract with the Steelers at $12,000 a year, twice what Bedenk received. It was not made known whether the Lions planned to increase the salary if Michelsen had accepted the offer.

Dr. Schott made no specific offer, but said rather he was conducting "exploratory conversation."

Michelsen expressed gratitude to school authorities and various alumni groups for considering him for the job, but added:

"I am extremely contented in my present capacity and I enjoy my association with Art Rooney and Barney McGinley, Steelers owners."

Dr. Schott had secured permission from Rooney to speak to Michelsen. Rooney said he would not stand in Michelsen's way if Michelsen wanted to make a switch.

Match Canadian With Big German

Frederick von Schacht, a 240-pound Milwaukee German, whose roughness so exasperated a woman spectator when he wrestled Don Eagle December 14, that she struck him, and attempted to attack him a second time, will wrestle Larry Kasaboski, 230-pound Canadian, in the main 60-minute time limit or one fall exhibition one week from tonight, April 14, in The Arena.

Don Eagle's agility gave him a victory with an "Indian death hold" 33 minutes of grappling. Throughout the match, the Indian proved too fast for the German, who time and again resorted to rough-house tactics.

According to advance exploitation, the Canadian, who attended St. Patrick's college in Toronto, is a clean, scientific grappler, but is fully acquainted with all the rough tricks in the game.

Kasaboski is known by Don Eagle, Rasputin, and others as La Belle, Pancho Villa and the "profession" as "Mr. Handsome", but aside it may be anticipated that, if he keeps wrestling, he won't remain "Mr. Handsome" long.

Pancho Valentino, the "bad boy" of the mat, will wrestle the popular Pierre La Belle in one 20-minute exhibition. It will be a return affray, Pierre having vanquished Pancho with a kangaroo kick February 10.

Wild Bill Cody, who attires his frame in clothes similar to those worn during Buffalo days by the renowned scout, will take on Chris Pappas, who from his name, it is judged he is a Grecian disciple of catch-as-catch-can.

From the two foregoing 20-minute match the Australian tag will be formed.

The Jefferson A. C. will promote the exhibitions, which no doubt will be rough affairs, especially the Kasaboski-Von Schacht and LaBelle-Valentino bouts.

Shot Putter Named Most Outstanding

NEW YORK, April 7.—(INS)—Jim Fuchs, Yale's world record holding shot put, was named by the New York Track Writers association today as the outstanding athlete of the past indoor track season.

Brincko's Win City Tenpin League Title

Brincko's defeated the Moose 2885-2712 Wednesday night in a roll off for the City Tenpin league championship at the Brincko Lanes.

The winners posted high single games in the series with 1028

Joe DeFelice had high three game series with 617 and high single game with 237. John Brincko was second high with 232.
